BATTLE TO STAY DRIVE OF POLES

Officer at Gross-Strehlitz Uses Artillery On Invaders

3000 ATTACK 200

Civil War is Feared —Polish Frontier is Unguarded—British Blame Poles For Trouble

Oppein, Upper Silesia, May 5.—Col. Bond, British control officer at Gross-Strehlitz, reported to British headquarters here tonight that he opened artillery fire on 2,000 to 3,000 Poles attempting to occupy the city. The Poles brought up light field pieces and are replying.

Col. Bond, who has approximately 200 Italian troops, also reported that he probably could not hold out long.

A British sergeant-major has been mortally wounded. A crowd of Germans attacked a Pole in the streets of Oppein and beat him to death before the police could interfere.

20,000 in Invading Army.

Organized Polish forces, estimated at 20,000, have occupied all of Upper Silesia south of a line running from Kosel to Tarnowitz, with the exception of a few large towns, and are moving further northward, according the information supplied by a member of the interallied representation here.

Italian troops at Rybnik, well south in the plebiscite area, comprising a regiment of infantry and two machine gun companies, are surrounded by 3,000 Poles, and a pitched battle has been going on for several hours, the informant stated this afternoon.

The Italian known dead are three officers, one of them of high rank, and twelve privates.

The main body of Polish forces is said to have crossed the border in motor lorries at 2 o'clock Monday morning, taking possession of the border towns, blowing up important railroad bridge and cutting telegraph and telephone wires. They drove out the German residents, it is declared, meeting virtually with no resistence.

As the Poles advanced the plebiscite police turned out, and the Polish policemen are reported to have made short shrift of their German comrades, who were forced to hand over their arms and were conducted to the border and driven into Poland. Those who resisted were beaten or shot.

The Germans are reported forming in Rosenberg, twenty-five miles from Oppelu, either for defense or a counter drive.

Interallied officials heard of the invasion with considerable concern. Maj. S. Watts, British representative, said: "If the Poles keep up their advance we will have civil war. So far there has been no serious fighting, but now it looks probable."

The French authorities appear hopeful of re-establishing the government, and say that the invaders will be expelled. But the fact is pointed out that the whole country is overrun, and the task will be very difficult, if not impossible, as the peasants in the newly occupied region are known to sympathize with the Poles and are much better organized than the German residents in the towns. The Poles also feel no fear of French opposition. On the other hand, it is said they believe that their action meets with tacit approval of the French.

The Germans bitterly charge the French with permitting the move to mature long after it was known that Adalbert Korfanty, Polish plebiscite commissioner, was planning to drive out the Germans.

The German support their charges by pointing out that, since the British soldiers were withdrawn, only their control officers remaining with Gen. Lerond, the Polish frontier has been unguarded, although the strictest control was maintained on the north frontier over the Germans, and that, further, the French soldiers nowhere attempted to contest the advance.

They say also it is known that Korfanty was in Paris three weeks ago, where, they allege, it was learned he conferred with Premier Briand before returning to Warsaw, shortly after which he circulated a rumor that the Poles "were being robbed of Upper Silesia and were to receive only the Pless and Rybnik districts," and called them into action.

The British here are outspoken in blaming the Poles for the whole affair, and this has developed friction between them and the French, and there are reports in official circles that if the French fail to re-establish order and the British officers are not withdrawn they are likely to resign in a body. Maj. Cassel, British control officer at Tarnowitz, and Col. Bond, British control at Gross-Strelitz, have been thrown into acutely unpleasant positions, and are at present virtually helpless and surrounded by armed Poles, who do not conceal their hostility toward the British.

The population in the southeast mining districts, where all industry is at a standstill, are facing serious suffering unless rail communications are re-established in the next few days. No food supplies have been sent in for two days; there is no commerce with Czechslovakia, and relief from Poland is improbable.

Festival Continued

Academy Affair to Close Tonight

The management of the St. Mary's Academy May Festival has decided to hold the festival again tonight. This decision was reached in view of the fact that on account of the large crowds present last night, and the recent acquisition of additional donations, it was impossible to dispose of the different articles.

A gathering, surprising in its proportions, attended the festival last evening, despite the inclemency of the weather, and added to the occasion a genuine festive spirit. The Columbian Players, under the direction of Norris Roland, gave an exceptionally clever vaudeville show that was greatly enjoyed by those present.

A large number of valuable donations will be raffled off tonight, and it is expected that, as heretofore, the patronage will be noteworthy.

Knights Templer

President Harding will review the parade and attend the services.

The annueal Ascension Day services of the local commandery will be held Sunday night when the members will attend services in a body at Grace Episcopal Church. A special sermon will be preached by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of that church.

Cut Off Rosslyn

Corporation Commission Grants W. Va. Line Permission

Richmond, Va., May 5.—After a brief hearing the State Corporation Commission yesterday authorized the Washington-Virginia Railway Company to discontinue all services on its Rosslyn Branch, a line operated between Arlington Junction and a point on the Virginia side of the Potomac River, opposite Georgetown. Practically no opposition appeared, the only protest being from employes of the government experimental farm.

The line was built by the old Washington Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, prior to its consolidation with the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church, to compete for the Arlington Cemetery patronage, which since consolidation, is handled over the Falls Church line.

PRESIDENT WINS ON DISARMAMENT

Senate Committee Turns Down Borah's Conference Plan

POMERENE TO AID BOR

Bill Provides for 120,000 Men and Appropriates $496,500,000—Would Probe Naval Examinations

Washington, May 5.—Administration forces won the first skirmish today in the impending Senate fight over naval disarmament.

Guided by the expressed wishes of President Harding, the Senate naval committee refused to incorporate in the annual naval appropriation measure the proposal of Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, authorizing and requesting the chief executive to invite Great Britain and Japan to send representatives to a disarmament conference here.

Before the committee acted, Senator Borah had given notice of the fight to come by reintroducing his proposal in the Senate and moving to suspend the rules to make it in order.

Senator Pomerene, democrat, Ohio, also gave formal notice that he intended to present a disarmament amendment to he naval bill in the Senate. His amendment would authorize the President to delay the building program six months while an effort was being made to arrange a conference between the United States, Great Britain and Japan. Should an agreement to limit construction be reached by the three countries, the President might suspend the building program in whole or in part.

It is understood that administration leaders in both the Senate and House plan to delay action on any proposals for international disarmament, because of the desire of the President not to have this question initiated in Congress in the present state of international relations.

As favorably reported today by the naval committee, the annual naval bill, which failed at the last session, provides not only funds for continuing construction on the uncompleted 1916 program, but also for a personnel 20,000 in excess of the 100,000 proposed by the House. It also carries funds for beginning work on various naval bases on the Pacific coast.

The committee increased the House total of $396,000,000 to $496,500,000 or the same figure that was in the bill as it failed in the Senate last March. The principal increases voted today by the committee included $12,000,000 for aviation, $15,000,000, to start ork on two new aircraft carriers, about $7,000,000 to begin construction of a new fleet base at Alameda, Calif., and other Pacific coast bases, and about $7,000,000 to expedite construction of capital ships. There also were large increases for pay and support of personnel.

Senator Paindexter, republican, Washington, in charge of the bill, plans to present the amended measure to the Senate tomorrow with a view to calling up next week immediately after disposal of the emergency tariff bill.

ARMED BAND SHOOTS UP TIJUANA BELOW BORDER

San Diego, Calif, May 5.—Shouting "Viva Cantu," a party of mounted men yesterday invaded the town of Tijuana, just across the line in lower California and fired volleys at the jail and a number of buildings.

No estimate of the number of men in the band was furnished by Mexican authorities. It was reported that the men wore the uniforms of the Mexican army and that they apparently were well supplied with ammunition.

Incorrigible Boy

Colored Youth Shows Signs of Repentance When Threatened With Drowning

A diminutive colored lad giving the name of Jesse Jackson, nine years old, was arraigned in the police court today on complaint of his grandfather Aaron Jackson who charged the lad with incorrigibility. The lad stood at attention at the bar and listened to the multitude of complaints urged against him and said nothing. Justice Snow was perplexed what to do with the boy who, from the evidence adduced, recently had been living in Washington. Not until someone in court suggested that he be drowned at 11 o'clock did the lad show signs of repentence. However, the boy later in the day was sent back to Washington and much to his delight. He promised to keep away from Alexandria in the future.

NEW QUARTERS FOR BOAT CLUB

Old Dominion to Purchase King Street Ferry Slip

NEED MORE ROOM

Will Remodel Place Into First Class Club House and Have Accommodation for 250 Members.

The Old Dominion Boat Club shortly will acquire the ferry slip from the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Club at the foot of King street. The club at its meeting last night decided to purchase this valuable piece of river front property, and use it for its club. The price is $2,750.

The present clubhouse on the strand between Prince and Duke streets, now owned and occupied by the Old Dominion Boat Club, will be abandoned after the property is formally acquired from the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Club.

It was decided to have the title to the property vested in the name of E. E. Carver, J. T. Prston and George D. Hopkins.

The old ferry slip will be remodeled and converted into a modern clubhouse just as soon as the title is examined and the property acquired. A committee composed of E. E. Carver, J. Sid Douglas, George D. Hopkins, F. M. Hamilton and Magnus W. Bales was appointed to outline plans for the proposed improvements.

The following were elected to membership in the club: C. C. Brown, 1019 King street; Thomas Kelly, 1400 King street; B. G. Minor, 215 South Alfred street.

It was decided to hold a series of dances every two weeks during the summer months and a committee composed of Gilbert J. Cox, jr., R. M. Green, jr., and C. M. Shepperson was appointed to arrange for the dances.

While no definite plans have yet been made regarding the new clubhouse, it is stated that it is proposed to issue bonds for the work contemplated and that the club soon may install canoes and other equipment in the place. The new club has a frontage of about eighty feet and the present quarters only about forty feet. It also is stated that at the new club there will be ample accommodation for about 250 members.

Many appropriate gifts will be advertised by a number of merchants in tomorrow's Gazette for mother's day and those contemplating making a gift to mother should not fail to look over the Gazette columns tomorrow.

For Fire Chief Job

Columbia Company Indorses E. J. McDermott—E. S. Leadbeater Declines to Enter Race

Edward J. McDermott, was unanimously indorsed by the Columbia Fire Engine Company at its meeting last night for the position of fire chief of the city to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Kenneth W. Ogden. About fifty members of this company attended the meeting, it being one of the most largely attended meetings held recently.

Edward S. Leadbeater, treasurer of that company, whose name had been mentioned as a receptive candidate for the position, announced at the meeting that he was not a candidate for the office. Mr. Leadbeater stated that it would be impossible for him to devote his time to the position. This therefore, up to the present time leaves but one avowed candidate in the field for the position.

It is stated that city council will not elect a fire chief at its meeting next Tuesday night but probably will defer action till a future meeting.

TO MAKE DIRT FLY CLEAN UP WEEK

Plans For Clean Up Paint Up Campaign Soon Ready

DATE FIXED MAY 23 to 28

Co-Operation of all Urged to Make Affair a Success—Prizes Are Offered to Boys Participating.

At the last regular meeting of the Civic Bureau of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce the bureau decided on a Clean-up, Paint-up Week for May 23 to 28, inclusive. The acting chairman, K. W. Ogden, yesterday appointed the following committee, which will have charge of the campaign: C. Page Waller, chairman; R. P. Farrington, F. Clinton Knight, Capt. George H. Evans.

Mr. Waller, chairman, stated this morning that he would call a meeting of the committee within the next few days to formulate definite plans for the successful handling of the campaign. Everybody is asked to co-operate in this campaign, which is for the purpose of a cleaner city, and which, when heartily supported by the entire population, has been put over with great vigor and success in other cities of the country, proving a big boom to local business.

The following is an extract from the minutes of the meeting as furnished by J. T. Preston, secretary:

"Under the head of new business the matter of a Clean-up, Paint-up week was brought up. Mr. R. P. Farrington of the Alexandria Gazette made an interesting address, recommending the desirability of such a movement, and suggesting May 23 to 28, 1921, for the week. Dr. J. H. Bitzer made an address regarding newspapers being left on doorsteps and the wind blowing them along the streets. Mr. James R. Caton stated that he thought much of the trouble from paper in the streets was caused by the newsboys failing to properly deliver the papers. Mr. E. A. Feldtkeller spoke of the great help rendered by Boy Scouts in this movement. Mr. R. P. Farrington made a further address, giving other details regarding the movement. Mr. F. Clinton Knight stated that the firm of R. E. Knight & Sons would give a bicycle to the boy doing the best work in the campaign. Mr. R. P. Farrington offered the full co-operation of the Alexandria Gazette in this movement. A further discussion followed. Moved by Mr. C. Page Waller, seconded by Mr. R. S. Jones and unanimously carried, that we hold a Clean-up, Paint-up week. Moved, duly seconded and carried, that this bureau recommend an appropriation to the board of directors of $75, or as much thereof as is necessary, to defray the necessary expenses of this campaign. Moved, duly seconded and carried, that the week beginning May 23, and ending May 28, be designated as Clean-up, Paint-up week for this city."

As outlind by the National Clean-up and Paint-up Campaign Bureau in St. Louis the idea of such a campaign is "To Meet America's Greatest Need—Cleanliness and Orderliness in Every Community." More than 7,000 cities and towns have answered to the call of "Clean-up and Paint-up" to "make homes and towns and cities beautiful, sanitary and safe from the ravages of disease, fire and deterioration." Anybody desiring any information on the subject is invited to inquire of the members of the committee.

K. E. Wallace of the Y. M. C. A., in charge of the Pioneer Scouts of the city, has offered a $2.50 Spaulding league baseball to the member of the Pioneers doing the best work during the campaign in cleaning up his own premises. Mr. Wallace also offers a similar prize, open to any boy in the city, who does the best work during the week in painting up or whitewashing up any outbuildings.

Sound Advice from the White House.

In warning the executive departments of the Government that hereafter they will be expected to live within their means as provided by Congress, President Harding has put his finger on the real leakage of the people's money out of the United States Treasury.

Despite the huge totals appropriated for the current expenses of the different government departments for this fiscal year, the immense sum of $216,000,000 has already been asked in deficiency appropriations, a sum which it is expected will rise to $400,000,000 before all the estimates are in.

There is absolutely no excuse for such extravagence. It is ridiculous that with the war over, the government departments should spend this year nearly a half billion dollars more than allotted them. "Go ahead and spend the money and Congress will have to make it up in deficiency appropriations" is a motto that should be erased from over the heads of every department and bureau door in Washington.

In an efficient administration of the government, just as in an efficient management of a household or a business property, it would seem to be clearly the part of wisdom to live well within the means provided. What kind of peace of mind is there for a family always in debt? How long does a business enterprise exist which never shows a surplus but always a deficiency? And yet the great executive departments of the United States Government jog along from year to year always in the same old rut of debt and deficiency, yelling at Congress to come and pull them out of a hole.

"Live within your means," the President says to his departments, and it is a piece of sound advice that might well be taken to heart by not only those directly addressed but by the entire one hundred and ten millions of us in our individual and family lives, our business enterprises and all our social undertakings.

STOKES DIVORCE SUIT HALTS.

Court Awaits Recovery of Plaintiff. Case Has Consumed Eight Weeks.

New York, May 5.—The Stokes divorce trial was adjourned today until W. E. D. Stokes recovers sufficiently from a mild attack of pleurisy to testify

Little less than eight weeks have been devoted to airing charges and counter charges, and when the trial is officially completed it will be classified as the most protracted divorce proceeding in recent years. Mr. Stokes is expected to remain on the stand two days. Thre will be no other witnesses.

Most of today's session centered about a model of the Wallace apartment. Expert witnesses for Mr. Stokes considered the possibilities of leaping from the roof coping of the house into the Wallace apartment. Martin W. Littleton, for Mrs. Stokes, went into a discussion of the limitations of the human eye, and at the end of it all Justice Finch announced he would go to the house and see for himself.

TO THE ALEXANDRIA BASEBALL FANS
(Communicated)

Several weeks ago I challenged the Dreadnaught A. C. Baseball team for a series of games to be played on any diamond in Alexandria. Today I received a letter from the Dreadnaught management offering the Triple A $10 guarantee for one game only. We agreed to play the games on the Dreadnaught field on a 60-40 basis, allowing the Dreadnaughts 20 per cent extra for the use of their field. Our record so far this season shows seven games won and no games lost, a record that has been holding itself up against the best teams in Washington.

If the fans here want to see some real games and not witness rotten exhibitions by a selection of Washington second-raters, we are in the field for this series, and challenge the Dreadnaughts to play us three games on the sixty-forty percentage basis any time that they feel that they want real opposition.

We agree for the fans convenience to play all three games on Baggett's field. What do you say, Dreadnaughts? Do not wait until the end of the season. Play now before you take your pick from the major leagues.

ONE DEAD IN CAMP BLAZE. Man, Ten Horses and Four Mules Burned at Camp Meade.

Baltimore, May 5.—A white man, ten horses and four mules were burned to death in a fire that started late last night in a stable in the remount section of Camp Meade.

The man was a civilian who, with nearly a hundred others, was employed at the cantonment to assist in the erection of buildings. It is not expected that his identity will be learned until the investigating board completes its work of checking up all the civilians employed there

RICHMOND THEATER.

Those who doubt the world has progressed during the last two thousand years should witness the showing of Allen Holubar's famous Associated First National production of the eternal-drama, 'Man-Woman-Marriage,' starring the talented actress, Dorothy Phillips. The picture is at the Richmond Theater Friday and Saturday this week.

"Man-Woman-Marriage" is a condensed history of the world's progress—a screen epic and proof positive of woman's subtle and benign influence over the destiny of mankind.

IDLE HOUR THEATER.

The unexpected is always occuring, r. Vitagraph's Tom Terriss' production, "Dead Men Tell No Tales," at the Idle Hour Theater this Saturday May 7. The big spectacular scene, that of blowing up a sailing vessel, is staged early in the story and from that point to the final close cut series of strange events which are highly dramatic are depicted. The spectator is never certain just what is going to happen next and he is held in suspense until the end of the picture.

WHOLESALE GENERAL MERCHANDISE

ORGANIZED 1877, BY CHARLES KING, WHO WAS PRESIDENT OF THE CORPORATION 1906 TO 1910

DISTRICT JURY FINDS NICKY ARNSTEIN GUILTY

Washington, May 5.—Jules W. (Nicky) Arnstein and the four other defendants jointly on trial here with him in Criminal Court on charges of conspiracy to bring stolen securities into the District of Columba, were found guilty by a jury tonight after forty minutes' deliberation. The other defendants were Nick Cohn, David W. Sullivan W. W. Easterday and Norman S. Bowles.

The cases arose out of a $5,000,000 Wall street bond theft and the defendants are expected to be placed on trial soon in New York as the next step in their prosecution. Counsel for the defendants announced they would file a motion for a new trial tomorrow, and if this was denied would appeal. Sentence will not be imposed for two weeks. The maximum is two years imprisonment or $10,000 fine, or both.

The trial, which was the second here, occupied two weeks. At the first trial the jury was unable to agree.

D' ANNUNZIO WANTS GORE ON HIS GIFT DAGGER

Rome, May 4.—The dagger presented to Gabriele D'Annunzio by women of Fiume during his sojourn there has been returned to the women with a letter saying he was unable to keep the weapon until the recent elections, which were won by the Fiume Autonomists had been redeemed.

"You are able to absolve Fiume from this vote, then restore the dagger to me, blood-stained in this good cause," the poet is quoted in a Fiume message as saying.

D'Annunzio in his letter praised the Fascisti and Ligionaries for their occupation of the city by a coup after the victory of the Autonomists.

There's Science--as well as Skill in Bread-Making

CORBY BREAD is made on scientific principles---skilfully followed by long experience.

Every ingredient used is measured by the exact scientific standard---for its food-value; and its purity---because CORBY BREAD is something more than a mere incidental to the meal. It is designed to form an important part of the nourishment required by the human system for its sustenance and development. Therefore, only the BEST goes into CORBY BREAD---and the most advanced methods of mixing the doughs and baking the loaf are observed.

CORBY BREAD is never a product of chance---but always the result of applied science.

100 per cent pure; and
100 per cent nutritious---

CORBY BREAD is delivered fresh from the ovens right here in Alexandria to your grocer or delicatessen.

PNEUMONIC PLAGUE NOW RAVAGING VLADIVOSTOK

Washington, May 4.—A serious outbreak of pneumonic plague at Vladivostok, Siberia, is reported in a cablegram received today at American Red Cross headquarters here. The message gave no details.

Red Cross officials said this plague was more deadly than the bubonic plague. It is a form of lobar pneumonia and a similar plague ten years ago in Manchuria resulted in the death of 85,000 people

"THE WEEK-END GAMES."

Saturday, 3:30 p.m., Baggott's Field, upper King street, the Dreadnaughts take a try at Battery F., 19th Field Artillery, from Fort Myer, Va. This team is playing good ball in and around Washington, and prospects of an interesting game are good.

Sunday, 1:45 p.m., same grounds, the Dreadnaughts will have as their opponents the Keystone Athletic Club of Atlantic City, N. J.

The Keystone nine has an enviable record, only one defeat being registered against it in fifty-two games last season. They are the pride of the famous resort and all who love baseball and have been to the Jersey shore have seen these lads perform. The team consists of the best players of the state and has been successful in games with the best teams in the northern middle Atlantic states. Manager Higbee of the Keystones will have his line-up here before Saturday and same will be announced later.

Since the "Ds" performed last time valuable finds in material have been made and a team that's creditable to any community will be on hand. Inspired by loyal patronage the manager of the Dreadnaughts has secured players of state-wide fame and has even reached out beyond its borders for a shortstop that can play ball comparable to local boys playing in other positions.

With masters of the game on each of the nine stations of the field the Dreadnaughts are all ready and waiting for all teams who chance it with them and if Coaches Brenner and Hayden are authorities of the national pastime, the locals are just on that "macadam boulevard" for the amateur championship of the middle Atlantic states.

KELLY SENTENCED TO LIFE TERM FOR SANDY SPRING CASE

Frederick, Md., May 5.—The final chapter of the Sandy Spring, Md., bank robbery and murder case closed today, when John Kelly, alias Frank Wilson of Philadelphia, was found guilty by the judges of the Frederick County Circuit Court and sentenced to life imprisonment in the Maryland penitentiary.

Kelly is the third to be sentenced for life for complicity in the famous Montgomery County crime, in which Francis M. Hallowell, a director of the Sandy Spring Bank, was shot and killed, and during which something over $100,000 in cash and securities was taken.

Kelly said, after Judge Urner announced the verdict: "I must say all that testimony that was given against me is a case of mistaken identity, and if I was to stand before my Maker, if He took me in His presence right now, I would say the same thing, that I know no more about that robbery than your honors. I bared my past to prove myself in every way I could.

"Everything was all against me. I didn't have the resources the state did. I didn't have anything in my favor at all. I was framed from the start. And I repeat again that I never committed that crime, and I would say the same thing now if I was going to my death."

The parting of Kelly and his wife was pathetic. She rushed into the courtroom after the court adjourned and entwined her arms around her husband's neck, crying bitterly. She grew hysterical.

When one of the officers attempted to separate them, Judge Urner said, "Don't pull her away; give them all the time they want."

S. Patterson of Philadelphia, one of the attorneys for Kelly, announced this afternoon that he would enter an appeal from the decision of the local court. Kelly was taken to the Maryland penitentiary tonight.
